Introduction

This activity book has been designed to solidify children's understanding of the vocabulary required for day-to-day life. It is also in parallel with the vocabulary required for the Cambridge Flyers exam and corresponds to the A2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR).

The book is separated into ten topic-based units with each unit offering a range of fun and useful exercises. These exercises cover the essential vocabulary appropriate for children who wish to further their English learning journey.

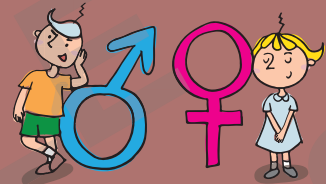

Unit 1 My Family and Friends

- 3 My _____ is my parents' granddaughter, and my _____ is my parents' grandson.
- 4 An _____ is what you call your mother or father's sister.
- 5 An _____ is what you call your mother or father's brother.
- 6 My _____ and _____ are my grandparents.
- 7 This is Ann. She has two siblings. Her _____ is called Sophia and her _____ is called Robert.
- 8 If your aunt or uncle have a child, he or she is your _____.

Exercise 4

William is talking about his family. Read what he says and tick (✓) the correct box.

- 1  Hello, my name is William. I am ten years old. Here's a photo of my family. I'm in the middle, between my two older sisters. They are called Katy and Daisy. My parents are behind us. Mum is holding my baby brother, George. There are six people in my family.

- 2  Look! Here's a photo of my grandparents. They have been husband and wife for over fifty years! Can you see me too? I'm with my cousins Jack and Julia. We are playing on the swings at the park. I love my grandma and

- 3  Here's another photo of my family on holiday in Australia. In this photo we were at a zoo. There were many animals there. We saw kangaroos, koala bears and even a scary crocodile!

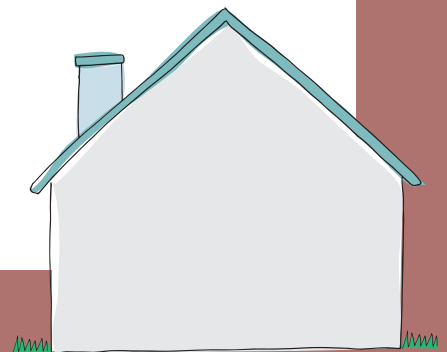

Exercise 5
